Person-to-Person - "...I have treasured the words of His mouth more than my daily bread" (Job 23:12b)

I recently came across a provoking definition of hunger: The aching of one who is empty. As humans, we hunger for all sorts of things: Mexican food, love, success, money, etc. In Matthew 4, after fasting for 40 days, Jesus stands up to the devil's temptation for food by proclaiming: "Man does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God." In essence, Jesus was boldly declaring: "I haven't eaten in 40 days, and yet I would rather have my Father than food!" Do you hunger for God? Does your hunger for God outweigh your hunger for anything else in life? If so, it will show in how you spend your time day-to-day. If not, ask God to give you a hunger for Him that will take priority in your life! #JT
